Presenting Our 3rd Annual Holiday Showcase!

Footnotes is producing its 3rd Christmas Production at the Turlock Theater on December 21st!

Our production is a little different this year. Here are the updates:

- Classes have been pre-selected to perform.
- If your child's class was selected to perform, it is NOT mandatory that you participate. They will remain in class, learn choreography just not perform.

- Selected classes will get an email as well as class costume order form in September with details.

- Due to limited space at this venue, we could not include everyone; however, IF your child wants to perform AND there is room in a performance class, they may be added to this class at a cost.

Please see the front desk for more details.
